

WASH SMART DRIVE CLEAN

A clean car feels great—but when you wash it in your driveway, the soap, oil, and grime can flow straight into the storm drain. That water doesn't get filtered—it heads directly to our rivers, streams, and lakes.

Use a commercial car wash. They treat and recycle the dirty water.

Wash on the lawn or gravel. Let the ground absorb the runoff.

Use soap sparingly and choose biodegradable options.

Think Blue Means
Clean Water for You!

Learn more online:
ThinkBlueMA.org

